St. Edward Public Schools is off to another great start to the school year! As I have shared in the past, this does not just happen. It happens because we have a staff that understands that working together is the best way to serve every student, every day.

Thank you to the St. Edward staff for all that you have done—and will continue to do—to make the 2026–2027 school year a rewarding and successful one.

I would also like to once again thank our parents, students, and community for your continued support. Each of you plays a vital role in making our school successful. We had a very smooth transition from summer break back into our school routines, and it has been great to see our students working hard, making good choices, and settling into the school year so well.

Welcoming New Faces and New Roles

We are excited to welcome several new faces—and some new roles—to the St. Edward Public Schools family this year!

Hailey Stamp joins us as our new third-grade teacher. We are excited to have Miss Stamp become part of our elementary team and look forward to the energy and enthusiasm she will bring to our students.

Taylor Pelster is not new to our school family, but she does have a new last name! She will be teaching second grade this year, and we are excited to have Mrs. Pelster continue to be an important part of our elementary staff.

Kyle Babb joined us during the fourth quarter last school year and is now with us full-time. Mr. Babb will be teaching band, vocal music, and a social studies class. We are glad he chose to continue working for the students of St. Edward!

Lindsay Tenski is also taking on a new role this year as she returns to the classroom to teach math. We are excited to have Mrs. Tenski back working directly with students.

Michael Roscoe is stepping into a new leadership role as our 7–12 Principal. We appreciate Mr. Roscoe's continued commitment to St. Edward Public Schools and look forward to his leadership.

And we are pleased to welcome Courtney Cumming to our kitchen staff. Courtney will be joining the team that works hard each day to provide our students with nutritious meals and great service.

Please join us in welcoming these staff members and supporting them as they begin their new roles. We are fortunate to have such a dedicated group of people working together to serve our students. Welcome to the St. Edward family!

September has arrived, which means this newsletter generally marks the halfway point of our first quarter. It is hard to believe how quickly the school year is moving already!

Our fall activities are rolling along, so please check the school website and social media postings for the latest information regarding academic and extracurricular schedules. Our breakfast and lunch menus, along with other important information, can also be found through these resources.

Parents, please make sure your PowerSchool login credentials are working properly so you can stay informed about your student's progress, attendance, grades, and important messages from St. Edward Public Schools. If you have questions or problems accessing PowerSchool, please contact the school office.

WELCOME BACK

St. Edward Public School

St. Edward | Documentary | September 2026

Welcome back to another fantastic year at St. Edward Public Schools! The first few weeks have flown by and it is hard to believe it is September already! For those who do not know me, I am Mr. Roscoe, the new 7th-12th grade principal. I am very excited for this new adventure and continuing to build a culture of achievement, growth, and fun at St. Edward. This year's motto for the secondary is, "Grab Your Lunch Pail, and Get to Work!" Our challenge as a school is to embrace the blue collar work ethic of picking up our lunch pail and getting to work. We are looking to challenge ourselves in all aspects of life and develop a culture of "can do attitude" no matter what we are facing. With the motto comes the Lunch Pail Award. Each week, a random teacher is asked to provide one student they believe deserves this award and that student is awarded our Beaver Lunch Pail. The "Hard Hat" winners get their picture taken with the lunch pail, get to carry the lunch pail around the following week, sign the lunch pail, and leave a quote or note for the future winners. The award is to assist in building a culture of success while striving to reach the standard of excellence. Grab your lunch pail, your hard hat, and other essentials because we are under construction on building another successful year!

FFA Members Busy Over the Summer

St. Edward FFA Members kept busy this summer! Members worked at their SAEs, attended Chapter Officer training, and participated in Beaver Valley Days. In addition, our St. Edward FFA Advisor, Mrs. Meyer, stayed busy attending professional development to bring awesome things back to our chapter!. It was a busy summer, but we are back in school and looking forward to what the year brings!

Beaver Valley Days

FFA members helped out with Beaver Valley Days this year. Members volunteered their time to help set-up and tear down tables for the Ron Cruise Memorial Artifact Show. On Sunday, the FFA members had a float in the parade and assisted with clean-up at the community center following the community BBQ.

FFA Officers Attend Training

For officer training the team and Mrs. Meyer traveled to Nebraska City, where they stayed at an AirBnB for 2 nights. On the way to Nebraska City, our first stop was James Arthur Vineyards for a tour of the winery and vineyard. Shawn took us through the back part of the vineyard where we got to see the equipment they used to make wine. We also got to try some grapes from off the vine, they were extremely sour.

The team was split into two groups with the task of cooking supper each night for the other half of the team. We ended up having pizza one night and chicken alfredo the other night! Our second day of training was spent in nature, touring Kimmel Orchards and the Arbor Day Farm and Arbor Lodge. We got to climb in the trees and learn more about the work of J. Sterling Morton. We did some planning for the year during training too as well as learned about communication and conflict resolution.

Agricultural Educators from Three States Gather at NCTA for 2026 Tri-State DELTA Conference

CURTIS, Neb. — More than 35 secondary agricultural educators from Nebraska, Kansas, and Colorado gathered July 7–10 at the Nebraska College of Technical Agriculture in Curtis for the 2026 Tri-State DELTA Conference, a premier professional development event designed to strengthen teaching, leadership, and innovation in school-based agricultural education.

Throughout the four-day conference, participants engaged in hands-on workshops, keynote presentations, instructional breakout sessions, and networking opportunities focused on innovative teaching practices, student engagement, leadership development, agricultural technology, and program excellence.

For many participants, the greatest value came from learning alongside fellow educators facing similar challenges.

“This was the best professional development I have ever attended. I learned so much from some really amazing ag teachers across Nebraska, Kansas, and Colorado. I left feeling re-energized to teach my students at St. Edward!” – Mrs. Meyer

Sessions throughout the conference highlighted instructional innovation, creating effective lessons, and strategies for creating engaging learning environments. Participants provide and accept feedback on their teaching throughout the Conference.

“The strength of agricultural education has always been educators who are committed to continuous improvement, in themselves and their students,” Turnbull, UNL Lecturer, said. “When teachers continue to grow professionally, students benefit. Conferences like DELTA help ensure that agricultural education programs remain relevant, innovative, and responsive to the needs of today’s learners.”

Since its inception, Tri-State DELTA Conferences have become a valued regional collaboration that brings together agricultural educators to learn from one another, share best practices, and return home equipped to make an immediate impact in their schools and communities.

At the end of last year the St. Edward Computer Lab received a new 3D Printer using CTE grant funds. This year students have started learning how to design 3D objects during Computer Applications 1 & 2 classes. Both Isaac Ketelsen (little man print) and Jacob Reardon (replica ear tag print) were the first in their classes to design and print an original 3D design that they created! Students are excited to try new designs and see the 3D print results!

Beaver Pride-Citizenship

Elementary is doing things a little different this year for assemblies.. They will hold a monthly assembly honoring two students for citizenship, recognizing birthdays for the month, working on a goal together! Congrats to Paisley Fitchner and Evelin Bernal on being Safe, Responsible, and Respectful!

Student Success!

For the 7th-12th grade students, the theme of the school year is, "Grab Your Lunch Pail, and Get to Work." This mentality is for the students to put all their effort into succeeding in the classroom, but also in the community as outstanding citizens. Throughout the year, one student each week will be awarded the "Lunch Pail" for showcasing the values, traits, and work ethic that SEHS holds dear. These students are showcasing what it means to be a St. Edward Beaver and continue to grow our culture.

The inaugural recipient is Sophomore, Shinel Justus. Shinel was chosen for her hard work in the classroom last week, as well as her positive mentality, and pushing herself to succeed! We want to congratulate Shinel for this award!

The Music Program is off to a roaring start. Upper Level Choir (15 students) and Band (22 Students) are working on music for this season including our Veteran's Day Celebration and Holiday Concert.

Additionally we have a new 4th-6th Grade Elementary Choir that is beginning. I'm super excited about all of these students as we prepare for not only our school concerts but various clinics, competitions, and festivals we'll be traveling to throughout the school year.

Fall Semester Concerts:

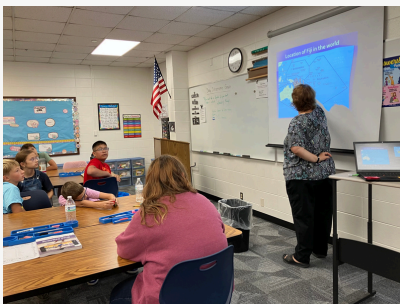

- Veterans Day - Music from the Years of American Military Conflicts
- Holiday Concert: A Twisting, Turning Sleigh Ride (New Twists on Old Classics)

Writing and Journalism

Mrs. MacDonald has a total of 19 students between these two classes. Journalism is busy picking themes for the yearbook while the writing class is focused on creative writing for this semester. The hope is that they will learn that writing can be fun. These pictures show students redacting words from articles in the newspaper to make a positive message.
